

AT A GLANCE

HERBERT WERTHEIM COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

Founded in 1950, FSU's Herbert Wertheim College of Business is one of the nation's youngest business schools, yet its reputation for excellence has helped it become one of the largest. Consistently ranked as a top business school, the college has several programs ranked among the nation's Top 10. The college's internationally acclaimed faculty members are recognized for research productivity and relevance, and its alumni are respected corporate leaders and entrepreneurs making their mark on the global economy. The Herbert Wertheim Center for Business Excellence officially opened its doors on January 6, 2026. This monumental step in advancing the college's reputation represents far more than a new building; it's a commitment to innovation, access and preparing future business leaders.

PHILANTHROPIC INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES

The Herbert Wertheim College of Business is one of the nation's best public business schools, with top faculty, innovative programs and life-changing opportunities for students. Additional philanthropic investment is critical for the college to elevate student success and increase faculty impact.

The dean's fundraising priorities include:

- ⇒ Generating critical support for scholarships and transformational programming for students
- ⇒ Establishing a cadre of new professorships and chairs, allowing for the recruitment and retention of the nation's most cited and respected faculty
- ⇒ Enhancing programs in emerging fields
- ⇒ Bolstering resources for impactful faculty and student research

IMPACT

Private philanthropic investment from individuals, foundations and corporations allows us to successfully compete with the best universities for world-class faculty members and students.

Impact on Programs, Students and Faculty

Enhanced programs support FSU's academic excellence status, attract the best and brightest young scholars and appeal to renowned educators.

Impact on Facilities

Private funding helps keep facilities updated with state-of-the-art technology and collaborative spaces to meet the changing demands of today's students and the employers who will hire them.
