Inspire innovation. Instill compassion. Ignite an entrepreneurial mindset.

PHILANTHROPIC INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES

The Jim Moran College of Entrepreneurship aims to spread entrepreneurship across FSU's campus and serve all students through collaborative programs, competitions and resources. Additional investment is critical for the college to elevate student success and faculty impact.

The dean's fundraising priorities include:

- ⇒ Establishing a deanship and cadre of new professorships to attract nationally prominent professors and bring recognition to our faculty
- ⇒ Generating critical support for student engagement initiatives that provide student entrepreneurs with opportunities to develop and showcase their business ventures, including competitions, conferences, events and workshops, mentoring and Student-Made—an online platform where students sell their products and services
- ⇒ Creating and bolstering scholarships to attract and retain top entrepreneurial undergraduate and graduate students
- ⇒ Strengthening funding for research excellence initiatives that support innovative students and faculty, including Ph.D. stipends and professorships
