PHILANTHROPIC INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES

The College of Fine Arts is a student-focused community with one of most diverse and renowned public university arts programs. Additional philanthropic investment is critical for the college to elevate student success and increase faculty impact.

The dean's fundraising priorities include:

- ⇒ Bolstering career-building experiences for students, including internships, research opportunities, residencies, showcases and study abroad
- ⇒ Enhancing initiatives that equip students with the professional skills necessary to lead in the arts
- ⇒ Generating faculty recruitment and retention funds for sign-on bonuses, research funding, conference and residency attendance and much more
- ⇒ Establishing a cadre of named professorships to attract nationally prominent professors and bring recognition to our faculty
- ⇒ Creating critical support for productions and exhibitions that provide experiential learning opportunities for all students

ENGAGEMENT

"Your involvement is vital to the future of the FSU College of Fine Arts. You connect us to our past, create a vibrant path forward filled with opportunities for current students and influence future generations. We invite you to attend our productions, mentor students, offer jobs or internships, become a volunteer leader through our support councils or visit us on campus."

—James Frazier, dean and two-time FSU alumnus
