

AT A GLANCE

COLLEGE OF MUSIC

The College of Music has a rich, distinguished and storied history of excellence that spans more than 120 years— it is one of four original colleges on FSU's campus. The college provides exceptional learning opportunities for students, shifting from education during the day to a performing arts organization at night. Its world-class faculty members and alumni have achieved success at the highest levels. During the past year, alumni have sung at the Metropolitan Opera, won Grammy awards and performed with prestigious ensembles around the world.

Passion. Purpose. Music.

PHILANTHROPIC INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES

The College of Music is dedicated to providing a world-class educational program to prepare musicians for the 21st century. Additional philanthropic investment is critical for the college to elevate student success and increase faculty impact.

The dean's fundraising priorities include:

- ⇒ Establishing a world-class learning environment through renovation and expansion of spaces for use by students, faculty and the Tallahassee arts community
- ⇒ Creating and bolstering scholarships that will attract and retain the nation's top music students
- ⇒ Generating critical funding for travel, allowing students and faculty members to share their talents nationally and internationally
- ⇒ Building a much-needed endowment to offset out-of-pocket expenses in perpetuity for Marching Chiefs students

ENGAGEMENT

Your involvement is vital to the future of the FSU College of Music. You connect us to our past, create a vibrant path filled with opportunities for current students and influence future generations. We invite you to mentor or share your expertise with students, cheer on the Marching Chiefs at home or on the road, attend an upcoming performance or visit us on campus.
