

College of Social Work

FSU COLLEGE OF SOCIAL WORK
LEAD

Graduate program ranked
No. 20 among public universities according to U.S. News & World Report's
"Best Graduate Schools" 2021

The Florida State University College of Social Work, one of the nation's leading institutions for social work education, maintains a long and distinguished history of educating the best and brightest minds in preparation for successful careers in various fields.

Established in 1928, the college has more experience than any other Florida institution offering social work education and was the first in the world to offer a master's degree in social work through an accredited online program.

In addition to administering a rigorous curriculum, the college prepares students for life after graduation through an extensive field education program, providing on-the-job training and experience at countless locations worldwide.

YOUR SUPPORT PROVIDES

- ◆ Non-endowed student scholarships
- ◆ Funds for the FSU Resilience Project
- ◆ Student travel expenses to national conferences
- ◆ Undergraduate research
- ◆ Community outreach
- ◆ Study abroad opportunities
- ◆ Travel for conferences and meetings

Graduate program ranks
No. 33 overall according to U.S. News & World Report's
"Best Graduate Schools" 2021

Houses the Institute for Justice Research and Development, which focuses on the intersection of criminal justice and social work

