

College of Education

Established in 1905, the Florida State University College of Education offers a unique combination of global-class academics and a close-knit, student-focused community. Every day, students and faculty work toward forging the future of education through innovative programs, exceptional facilities and unparalleled resources ideal for preparing tomorrow's educational leaders.

The college provides students with direct access to some of the best talent in the field and opportunities to engage in industry-leading research focused on educational techniques, teacher preparation, policy, scientific inquiry, sports management and more. With many specialty programs ranked among the nation's best, students emerge with an educational advantage to positively impact the trajectory of education.

YOUR SUPPORT PROVIDES

- ◆ Recruitment and retention of highly sought after faculty
- ◆ Student scholarships
- ◆ Facility and technology upgrades
- ◆ Guest lecturers from experts in the field
- ◆ Student and faculty research

Graduate program ranked No. 33 in the nation among public universities and No. 47 overall according to U.S. News & World Report's "Best Graduate Schools," 2021

Online graduate program ranked No. 15 nationally and No. 14 among public universities according to U.S. News & World Report

No. 1 ranked sports management doctoral degree program in the nation by College Choice 2020