

Florida State University Panama City

Florida State University Panama City offers life-changing educational and social opportunities that prepare students, faculty and community members to achieve their goals, develop a richer culture of diversity and foster a spirit of lifelong learning. Partnering with area military installations, industry leaders and other Florida State departments and colleges, we tailor the educational experience to make higher learning more accessible to northwest Florida residents.

With innovative programs, small classes, distinctive out-of-class experiences and respected professors who provide students personal attention and the chance to explore one-of-a-kind academic opportunities, FSU Panama City is dedicated to creating a supportive and challenging academic environment that cultivates student success.
