

College of Social Sciences and Public Policy

7 of the last 10 student body presidents were enrolled within the college

Students account for approximately 12% of university enrollment

Almost 30% of the university's Garnet and Gold Scholars, national scholarship and fellowship recipients, and Fulbright grant and award winners hail from the college

The Florida State University College of Social Sciences and Public Policy's six academic and 17 interdisciplinary programs, centers and institutes address virtually every economic, political and social issue society faces in the 21st century.

Our named professors are acclaimed for their outstanding research and excellence in teaching. Among the college's 120 faculty members, approximately 30% are award-winning teachers, with 16 holding the title of Eminent Scholar Chair.

All departments also offer professional master's degrees that greatly enhance career opportunities, with many programs achieving national acclaim and ranking in the top tiers among public universities.

YOUR SUPPORT PROVIDES

- ◆ International service and research opportunities for undergraduates
- ◆ Scholarships, study and research grants, and awards
- ◆ Student organizations and networking opportunities
- ◆ Visiting guests and lectures
- ◆ Programs and projects to provide real-world, hands-on experience and practical job skills
- ◆ Leadership training